About INFLIBNET

The Information and Library Network (INFLIBNET) Centre is an autonomous Inter-University Centre (IUC) of the University Grants Commission (UGC) located in the Infocity, Gandhinagar. Major activities and services of the Centre are geared towards modernization of academic libraries and information centres, promotion of information transfer and access, support scholarship, learning and academic pursuits. The Centre acts as a nodal agency for networking of libraries and information centres in universities, institutions of higher learning and R & D institutions in India. The Centre was established as an independent autonomous Inter-University Centre of the UGC in May 1996 and set out to be a major player for promoting scholarly communication among academicians and researchers across the country. With technology being a driving force in the contemporary education system, the INFLIBNET Centre has taken up a number of initiatives for the benefit of the academic community in India.

About G. B. Pant University of Agriculture & Technology

G. B. Pant University of Agriculture and Technology (GBPUA&T), popularly known as the Harbinger of Green Revolution, is the first State Agricultural University dedicated to the nation by the first Prime Minister of India, Late Pt Jawaharlal Nehru on 17 th November 1960 as the Uttar Pradesh Agricultural University. In the year 1972 the university was renamed as Govind Ballabh Pant University of Agriculture and Technology in the memory of the first Chief Minister of Uttar Pradesh, Bharat Ratna Pandit Govind Ballabh Pant. This legendary University has the sprawling green campus spread in an area of around 12000 acres which makes it the second largest University in the world in terms of contiguous area. University offers various Undergraduate, Postgraduate, and Doctoral programs in Agriculture & allied disciplines through its nine Colleges with Agriculture, Home Science, Veterinary Science and Technology as main streams. The University is the large educational system comprising of around 400 faculties and 5000 students. University Library is centrally located at equidistance from most of the Colleges and caters to the information needs of all the academic, research and extension activities of the University with a rich collection of around 4.25 Lakh print documents and e-resources.
