

MAKING THE MOST OF ASM JOURNALS VIA ONOS ACCESS

25TH MARCH 2026 4-5PM IST

Are you getting full value from your institution's ONOS access to ASM Journals? This hands-on webinar offers a practical overview of the content published in ASM Journals, designed to help subscribers working in microbial sciences benefit more from their access.

In this session, we'll walk you through:

1. Journals.asm.org platform: Watch live demonstration of features such as advanced search, article metrics, most read and most cited articles, editorial board, and special collections.
2. Publishing & research support: Explore resources that help you succeed as an author or reviewer – peer review training resources, publishing ethics, and editorial guidance.
3. Initiatives in India and globally: Events, fellowships and opportunities to grow your scientific career through ASM.
