About INFLIBNET

The Information and Library Network (INFLIBNET) Centre is an autonomous Inter-University Centre (IUC) of the University Grants Commission (UGC) located in the Infocity, Gandhinagar. Major activities and services of the Centre are geared towards modernization of academic libraries and information centres, promotion of information transfer and access, support scholarship, learning and academic pursuits. The Centre acts as a nodal agency for networking of libraries and information centres in universities, institutions of higher learning and R & D institutions in India. The Centre was established as an independent autonomous Inter-University Centre of the UGC in May 1996 and set out to be a major player for promoting scholarly communication among academicians and researchers across the country. With technology being a driving force in the contemporary education system, the INFLIBNET Centre has taken up a number of initiatives for the benefit of the academic community in India.

About Babasaheb Bhimrao Ambedkar University (BBAU)

Babasaheb Bhimrao Ambedkar University (BBAU), Lucknow, is a Central University established in 1996 to promote higher education and research in the spirit of social justice, equality, and inclusiveness inspired by Dr. B. R. Ambedkar's vision. Spread over a serene and eco-friendly campus, the university offers a wide range of undergraduate, postgraduate, and doctoral programs across disciplines such as science, technology, humanities, social sciences, law, education, and management. Known for its commitment to interdisciplinary learning, digital innovation, and community-oriented research, BBAU provides modern infrastructure including advanced laboratories, a fully automated digital library, residential hostels, and skill-development centers. The university actively encourages research addressing contemporary societal challenges, with special focus on marginalized and underrepresented groups. Through national collaborations, cultural activities, and academic outreach, BBAU has emerged as a growing hub of knowledge and empowerment in North India, carrying forward Ambedkar's ideals of education, democracy, and equal opportunity for all.
