About INFLIBNET

The Information and Library Network (INFLIBNET) Centre is an autonomous Inter-University Centre (IUC) of the University Grants Commission (UGC) located in the Infocity, Gandhinagar. Major activities and services of the Centre are geared towards modernization of academic libraries and information centres, promotion of information transfer and access, support scholarship, learning and academic pursuits. The Centre acts as a nodal agency for networking of libraries and information centres in universities, institutions of higher learning and R & D institutions in India. The Centre was established as an independent autonomous Inter-University Centre of the UGC in May 1996 and set out to be a major player for promoting scholarly communication among academicians and researchers across the country. With technology being a driving force in the contemporary education system, the INFLIBNET Centre has taken up a number of initiatives for the benefit of the academic community in India.

About Presidency University, Kolkata

Founded in 1817, Presidency University (state-aided) is one of India’s oldest and most distinguished institutions of higher education. Situated at the historic College Street academic hub of Kolkata, the University has a long tradition of excellence in teaching, research, and intellectual leadership. Originally established as Hindoo College, it later evolved into Presidency College and was granted university status in 2010. The University is recognized for its strong academic environment, interdisciplinary research, and contribution to science, humanities, and social sciences including Public Administration. With state-of-the-art facilities, digital learning resources, and an active research culture, Presidency University continues to uphold its legacy of academic distinction. The University Library and academic departments actively promote access to scholarly resources, research support services, plagiarism-detection tools, e-resources, and initiatives such as One Nation One Subscription (ONOS), reflecting their commitment to modern higher education and research dissemination. The University has three campuses at College Street, New Town and Dowhill, North Bengal. Currently, Undergraduate, Postgraduate and Doctoral (PhD.) Programs are being held.
